A sense of utter desolation and abandonment surrounds this whole city block. The open wounds left by the demolition of once proud buildings, signifies an irreplaceable loss; the brick-up and dirty broken windows as dim eyes, the unfinished lateral sides disposing the vulnerable and naked sides of the buildings. Façades that were never intended to be exposed to the outside world and avoid of any human activity shroud the city block in a deep crevice of total depression. (Catharina JM Bruwer).
